

Colin Spinney

Treasurer, Dalhousie University

Colin Spinney is the Treasurer of Dalhousie University. As Treasurer, his responsibilities include the management of the University's endowment, expendable and pension fund investment portfolios. He is also responsible for debt management, financial policy review and development, and endowment budgeting. He currently serves on an investment advisory committee for a public fund, is a member of the CURIE investment committee, and is an advisory committee member for a private capital organization. He is a past member of the CAUBO Treasury & Investment Committee. Prior to joining Dalhousie University, Colin was the Assistant Treasurer of a telecommunications company where he was responsible for cash and debt management, investments, banking relations, leasing administration and investor relations. Colin holds a MBA and is a CMA.