

Karrina Dusablon

National Directory, Education and Training, Desjardins Financial Security

Karrina Dusablon manages a team of specialized education advisors committed to providing plan sponsors with top quality support and ongoing guidance for participants throughout all stages of their retirement planning. She is also responsible for the training of our Sales Representatives, our Client Relationship Managers and our support staff.

Karrina holds a Bachelor of Industrial Relations from McGill University, with a majoring Management, Economy and Industrial Sociology. She has also received a certification in Personal Financial Planning from the Institute of Canadian Bankers.